Welcome to the 44th AuSPEN Annual Scientific Meeting.

With the theme of “Building the Bridge – Building excellence in clinical nutrition”, the meeting will focus on building a bridge between evidence and practice, incorporating patient-reported outcomes.

The conference program will feature concurrent workshops on the Thursday, including ESPEN LLL courses, a Communications Workshop and a Paediatric Workshop. Friday and Saturday will feature plenary sessions and symposia on a wide range of nutrition support and clinical nutrition topics including Inflammatory Bowel Disease, ICU, intestinal failure and oncology/bone marrow transplant, a great debate, ‘Hot Topics’ and more! There will also be free oral abstract presentations and poster displays.

Socially speaking, we have a great gala event on the Friday evening with a boat cruise on Sydney Harbour – if you still would like to book a ticket, please see Conference HQ to check availability.

We hope you all enjoy our new conference App which has all the latest features including an exhibition passport where you can visit our valued sponsors and go into the draw to win some great prizes.

Please enjoy your time with us at AuSPEN 2018 and take advantage of the great networking opportunities as well.

Warm regards

Sophie Hogan and Sharon Carey
- Co-Chairs LOC, AuSPEN 2018.

THE HISTORY OF AUSPEN

AuSPEN is the oldest parenteral nutrition society in the world. The Australasian Society for Parenteral Nutrition (AuSPEN) was founded in 1973 in Melbourne. It was initially set up by surgeons, intensivists, physicians, chemical pathologists, microbiologists and pharmacists. Professor Bob McMahon, a paediatric surgeon from Queen Victoria Hospital in Melbourne, was the first AuSPEN President.

In 1980 AuSPEN expanded the Society name to include enteral nutrition and became The Australasian Society of Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition (AuSPEN). AuSPEN also broadened the scope of its membership to include New Zealand. At this time, the main focus of the Society was the nutrition care of inpatients, however as outpatient needs have grown, the focus of the Society has shifted to encompass both acute and outpatient care.

Since the 1980s, AuSPEN has continued to expand and membership has increased exponentially. AuSPEN's core membership includes many different health professionals including Gastroenterologists, Surgeons, Intensivists, Dietitians, Pharmacists, Nurses, Researchers with a clinical nutrition focus, and students. AuSPEN's current president is Ibolya Nyulasi, an Associate-Professor and Manager of Dietetics Department from Alfred Health.

Today, AuSPEN's purpose remains to be the leading professional society for a multidisciplinary approach to clinical nutrition, promoting high standards in the practice of parenteral and enteral nutrition for both inpatients and outpatients.

Nutrition in Older Adults Facilitator: Dr Barbara van der Meij Speaker: Prof Alessandro Laviano		0830 - 0835 Introduction to Session - Julia Fox		Communicating Your Way Through the Multidisciplinary System to Achieve the Best Results for Your Patients. - Sophie Hogan & Dr Sharon Carey
Module 1. Epidemiology, Aetiology and Consequences of Malnutrition in Older Adults Module 2. Nutritional Screening, Assessment and Diagnosis Dietary Advice and Oral Nutritional Supplements in Older Adults		0835 - 0915 The Gut Microbiome – Something for Everyone - Dr Keith Ooi		This workshop aims to build the bridge between disciplines to improve patient care. There are many challenges when trying to work with other disciplines in the healthcare system. Understanding communication barriers and how to overcome them is integral to achieving evidence-based practice. This workshop will consist of case studies, presentations and discussions around common barriers and enablers to improve multidisciplinary team practice whilst integrating evidence.
		0915 - 0940 Use of a Decision Aid to Help Decision Making for Nutrition Support in the Paediatric Setting - Dr Jennifer Cohen
		0940 - 1005 Validation of Nutrition Rescreening Questions for Paediatric Inpatients - Melinda Thomas

Approaches to Parenteral Nutrition Facilitator: Dr Susannah King Speaker: Prof Alessandro Laviano		Refine Your Skills - Calculating Nutritional Requirements for Acute Care Patients - Dr Suzie Ferrie, Dr Emma Ridley, Nicola Riley and Caroline Nicholls		Transform Yourself into the Leader You've Always Wanted to Be - Dr Maree Ferguson
Module 1. Indications and Contraindications for Parenteral Nutrition		This workshop aims to build the bridge between evidence and practice in estimating patients' energy requirements. Measuring energy expenditure is not always possible or available in all settings, so the use of other methods is widespread. But there is significant variation in practice and the available evidence is sometimes difficult to interpret and apply. This workshop will consist of short presentations from leading dietitians, followed by rotating small-group case study discussion activities to help you think critically about this topic, avoid some of the common pitfalls, and confidently integrate the evidence into your practice.
Module 2. Techniques of Parenteral Nutrition		Please bring a calculator and whatever resources (handbook, equations, workplace cheatsheet etc) that you would normally use to estimate your patients' requirements in your everyday work.
